

Higher flexibility with lower costs

2N[®] VoiceBlue Next

CASE STUDY

Surf on the modern wave of VoIP technologies

With 2N[®] VoiceBlue Next, your company will have the ideal tool for reducing calling costs; then your higher revenue can be invested into expanding the business. The greatest advantage offered by 2N[®] VoiceBlue Next is that of being able to transfer a call directly from a mobile phone anywhere.

In general calls between two mobile numbers are cheaper than those between a fixed line phone and a mobile. This is the difference that can be slashed using the 2N[®] VoiceBlue Next gateway. In addition you can use the CallBack service to eliminate roaming fees, and also the special feature 2N[®] Mobility Extension that migrates your office onto your mobile phone.

What are the benefits for customers:

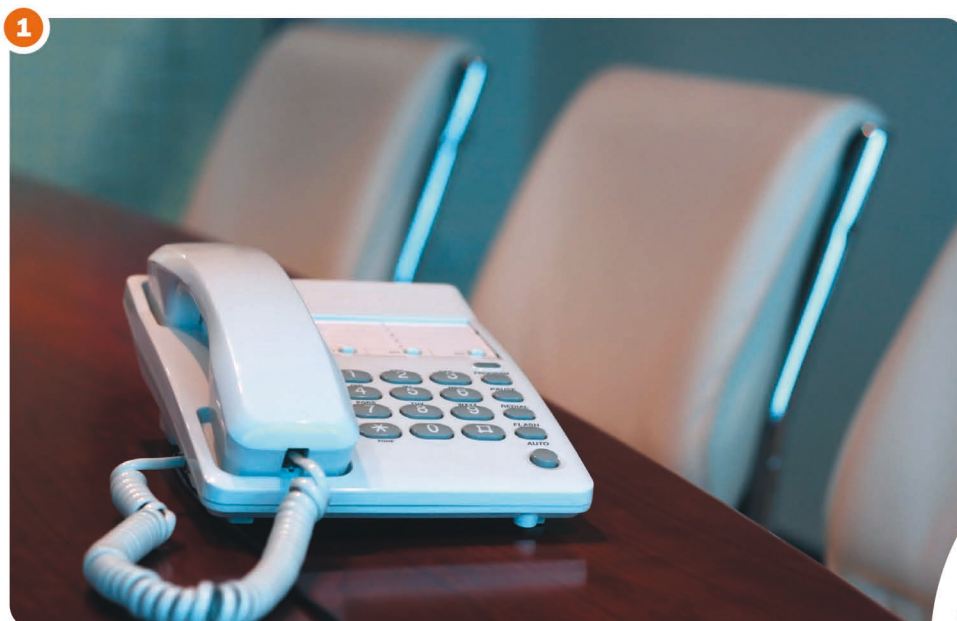

- Higher employee mobility
- Dramatic cost reductions
- Elimination of roaming fees
- PBX services on your mobile phone
- Ability to transfer calls from a mobile phone

Intended for:

- Real estate agencies
- Brokers
- Pharmaceutical companies
- Construction companies
- Branches of banks
- Insurance companies
- IT Companies

It is so easy to save money and work away from your office

1. Even when you are out of the office you do not lose contact with your customers.

2. Calls will be transferred automatically to your mobile phone.

3. Thanks to the 2N® Mobility Extension application you can transfer a call to a colleague who can deal with the customer enquiry.
